

A watercolor painting of a park scene in autumn. The trees have vibrant yellow, orange, and red leaves. A path winds through the trees, and a small building is visible in the background. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

Dear Friends,

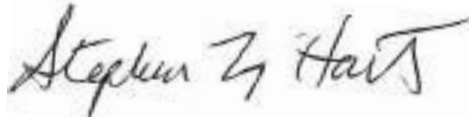

As I prepared to retire from my 34-year career at the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia in October, many people asked, "What are your plans for your retirement?" People who know me well were not surprised to learn that I intend to lead a very busy and active life including teaching at Penn, consulting, writing, and performing music. Among the things I am looking forward to the most, however, is leading the Board of Directors at the Cranaleith Spiritual Center as we embark on a new vision for growth.

When I came to Cranaleith about 18 years ago, I experienced for the first time, the depth and quality of programs, the peacefulness of the retreats, the attention of the capable and caring staff, the wonderful food and fellowship around the communal meal table, the grandeur of the historic house and the beautiful and well-tended grounds. What I experienced most profoundly though is Cranaleith's ability to transform and heal the human spirit. That ability continues today, and it is what keeps me coming back, time after time.

I have always taken great delight in hearing how others have also experienced this personal transformation. It is very common to read reviews such as, "The programs I have attended have been profoundly inspiring to me as well as the many other attendees."

It is both an honor and very humbling to serve as the Chair of the Board of Directors. On behalf of all the directors, I am confident in saying we are committed to the careful stewardship of this sacred place. We invite you in to experience your own personal journey of transformation and we look forward to helping you find peace, purpose and meaning in your life and work.

Sincerely,

Steve Hart
Board Chair

OUR MISSION

Sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, Cranaleith offers a contemplative space for all those seeking wholeness and transformation for themselves and society. We are committed to making Cranaleith accessible to all, especially to persons who are poor and those who work in solidarity with them. We seek to invite those at the center of need and those at the center of influence to reflection, reverent dialogue and meaningful partnerships.

Leave a Legacy AT CRANALEITH

The future is created by the dreamers of today – dreamers like you. After experiencing the beauty of Cranaleith Spiritual Center, many of you dream of a way to bring that feeling of renewal to future generations. In this spirit, we are introducing yet another way for you to express your commitment to Cranaleith: planned giving through our newly-established legacy society. A planned gift can be a lasting tribute to our shared mission of inviting those at the center of need and those at the center of influence to mutual transformation at the table of Mercy. You can help guarantee Cranaleith's long-term future.

Program Highlights

Each year Cranaleith welcomes members from many parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Sister Marie Rose Gibson, RSM led a Christmas season retreat for the Hispanic Women from St. Anne's Church Phoenixville where she ministers.

The Spiritual Direction Formation Program at Cranaleith is a contemplative process of learning the art and practice of spiritual accompaniment. This certificate program, based on contemplative tradition and the charism of Mercy, consists of a rich curriculum, with emphasis on exploring the intimate relationship of God with oneself, others and those on the margins. The 2019 Class completed the program this fall.

We were delighted to welcome fifty staff members from Covenant House to Cranaleith again this summer.

NEW DONORS

Wavi Mutua, Emily Gurtizen, Keriann DeLine and Anna Fedoryk spent a few days at Cranaleith attending a Mercy Volunteer Corps sponsored cross cultural training before embarking on a year of service with Mercy Volunteer Corps in Guyana. They will be serving at Mercy Wings Vocational Center and St. John Bosco Academy.

A great friend of Mercy, award winning author Ms. Alice McDermott spent a day with us at Cranaleith last spring. More than 100 guests attended her fascinating lecture on her novel The Ninth Hour and had the opportunity to greet Ms. McDermott in person at a lovely book-signing reception.

Capital Improvements FY2018-2019

During the 2018-2019 fiscal year, Cranaleith's Board of Directors approved additional expenditures to address capital needs which included replacing the roof on the Main House. Other needed repairs included:

- Painting the interior and exterior of the Main House.
- Replacing the carpets on the 2nd and 3rd floors of the Main House.
- Replacing the AV system in the Conference Center.
- Tending to our live trees and removing dead ones.
- Installing technology hardware updates.

These improvements were an $118,500 investment in the future of Cranaleith and we hope they communicate to you that this Sanctuary of Trees is here to stay.

Cranaleith Celebrates 20 Years

AS A SANCTUARY IN ALL SEASONS

Our 20th Anniversary Gala, held September 27, 2018, at Knowlton Mansion in Northeast Philadelphia was a wonderful celebration of this significant milestone in Cranaleith's history. Thanks to our more than 200 generous donors, we raised $148,500 in support of Cranaleith and its mission.

We extend our deep gratitude to all of our 20th Anniversary Gala Sponsors.

"Cristo Rey Philadelphia High School has hosted our Senior Retreat at Cranaleith for the past four years. The retreat comes at the end of our students journey with us and Cranaleith provides the perfect space for them to reflect on this pivotal time in their lives. "The childcare providers in our Early Childhood Fellowship always comment on how much they appreciate the chance to be at Cranaleith. They expend so much energy struggling to do right by their children, families and staff, always with insufficient resources and often at personal cost, that this time of respite is a precious one. As they build their leadership and advocacy capacity during our retreats, they soak up the beauty, the good food, and the thoughtful care of the Cranaleith staff."
